

GARY LUCAS

Although widely known for his stint in Captain Beefheart's Magic Band (Doc at the Radar Station, Ice Cream for Crow), Lucas has been a fixture in New York's eclectic downtown scene for years. "I'm receptive to music that has an underlying soulfulness," he told GP. "So it doesn't matter if I'm playing Wagner, Chinese pop, or traditional Jewish music, there's always a thread of the blues in there."
